

Membership Application Form

Together we can collaborate for a better future

Why join Voluntary Action Scotland?

Be part of Scotland's new network of local third sector infrastructure organisations – supporting around 45,000 local organisations and groups.

- Voluntary Action Scotland is the only national umbrella organisation specifically for local third sector infrastructure – focusing on issues that matter to you and responding to your needs;
- Be part of the new voice in Scotland's third sector – influencing policy, advocating for investment and representing Scotland's local third sector infrastructure;
- Get access to help from people who know and understand our sector and our local infrastructure;
- Benefit from regular information and news, networking events, peer support and the sharing of best practice;
- Get involved – influence the direction we take to make a difference: join our communities of practice, working groups or our board of Directors;
- Be active in shaping the future of local third sector infrastructure in Scotland.

Join Voluntary Action Scotland – make our voice stronger so that we can make a real and lasting difference in our communities.
Together we can collaborate for a better future.

Membership

Voluntary Action Scotland has two membership types:

- Full member: a local voluntary sector infrastructure organisation (those organisations generally known as CVS's, Volunteer Centres or third sector interfaces) operating in Scotland;
- Associate member: any other constituted community or voluntary sector organisation (national or local) operating in Scotland.

Membership Fees

Membership is currently free of charge to those meeting the eligibility criteria shown above.
